

Universal Children's Day

Support for parents

Protect children

Tuesday morning

22nd November

A team of people will be in school after you have dropped your child off, to talk to parents about how you can protect your children from abuse. Discover simple things you can do to empower your child and yourself and keep your child safe particularly from sexual abuse.

Families protecting children!

Celebrate Universal Children's Day